FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PRESS RELEASE #11 -028

Subject: CHILD PORNOGRAPHY / DRUG ARREST

Contact: Sgt. Jayson Rutherford

On August 27, 2011, at approximately 0130 hours, Scotts Valley Police Officers were on a routine commercial check of a shopping center and located an open door to a closed business. Officers entered the business and contacted the business owner, who was sleeping inside. When officers contacted the owner, they discovered a large amount of child pornography in plain view.

Officers obtained a search warrant for the business and located additional child pornography, computer hard drives, and methamphetamine. Officers interviewed the business owner and he was arrested for possession of child pornography. An additional charge of possession of methamphetamine will be requested. The suspect was booked at the Santa Cruz County Jail. Officers seized all of the child pornography and methamphetamine. The investigation is on going.
