PRESS RELEASE #11 - 036

Subject: Male arrested for assault with a deadly weapon at the Scotts Valley Metro

Contact: Sgt David Ball

On December 16th at approximately 1445 hours, officers from this department responded to a 911 call regarding an assault that had just occurred in front of the Scotts Valley Metro bus center on Kings Village Rd. Witnesses described two males who had been in a physical altercation, in which one of the subjects struck the other in the head with a rock, and slammed his head into the pavement. That subject fled the scene on foot towards the Kings Village Shopping Center. While fire medics and an ambulance responded to the scene and tended to the bleeding victim, officers located the suspect in front of a business at the shopping center. The suspect was identified by witnesses and taken into custody at 1538 hours. He was transported to County Jail. The victim was transported via AMR to Dominican Hospital.
