THE POSITION:

Under general supervision, plans, schedules, assigns, and reviews the work of patrol staff on an assigned shift; performs the full range of field and office work in connection with patrol, traffic, investigative, and training programs; assists in the preparation of cases and testifies in court; serves in specialized departmental roles; learns and assists with administrative functions for the department; fosters cooperative working relationships with other City departments, outside agencies, and the public served. This position also answers routine and emergency calls for protection of life and property and the enforcement of City, County, State and Federal laws, codes, and ordinances.

THE DEPARTMENT:

The Scotts Valley Police Department serves a community of over 11,000 citizens. During work hours, the population may swell to over 30,000. There are 20 sworn police officers assigned to such areas as patrol, traffic enforcement, investigations, and K9. The Scotts Valley Police Department is a service-oriented agency.

APPLICATION AND TESTING PROCESS:

Applicants are required to fill out and complete a City application form. To obtain the required City application, one may be obtained from the police department's website at www.scottsvalleypd.com. If you have any questions, telephone or email the Police Department's Administrative Secretary at (831) 440-5649 or clocke@scottsvalley.org.

Hearing-impaired individuals can access the Department's TDD machine by calling (831) 440-5670. Applicants needing special accommodations for testing should submit a request to Personnel at the time of application. After reading this announcement, if you have further questions, call (831) 440-5649.

Candidates will be required to participate in a pre-screening interview. Those who pass the pre-screening interview will be placed on an eligibility list until such time as a position is available. Upon availability, eligibility list candidates will be invited to a selection interview to assess an applicant's experience, education, judgment, oral communication skills and interpersonal skills.

All candidates who receive a score of 80% or more on the selection interview will be placed on a hiring list. As openings occur, top candidates will be selected for a background investigation in accordance with the POST Commission and Peace Officer Background Investigations Guidelines.

Candidates will also be required to successfully complete, to the satisfaction of this department, a polygraph test administered by a licensed polygrapher, a psychological exam given by a City selected psychologist and a medical exam by a City selected physician (to include a back X-ray and general physical examination). In addition to the qualifications noted above, suitability for employment will also be based on the following POST job dimensions: moral character, handling stress and adversity, work habits, interactions with others and intellectually based abilities.
